

Limelight Film Night Press Release

Limelight Film Nights see a gathering of filmmakers and creative individual and includes showcasing short films, Entertainment from emerging talents as well as a networking session followed by an after party to close the night!

Limelight Film Nights are an extension of Limelight Film Awards, which is the annual red carpet short film awards ceremony, attended by over 500 film makers, celebrities and TV/ Film personalities.

In its sixth year, with 12 film categories and a £10,000 production award, Limelight is paving the way in identifying emerging British film makers while helping to strengthen the industry.

Hosted at RichMix (the vibrant arts and cultural hub of East London), Limelight Film Nights will help see filmmakers continue to gain key recognition and exposure through our ever growing platforms. Limelight Film Awards CEO Munsur Ali stated “The monthly film nights are a great extension to our annual event. Short films, networking and an after party, provide the ingredients for a great night!”.
