

Press Release – 2017 Nominations

The largest independent short film awards - The 9th Limelight Film Awards is taking place on Friday the 13th of October at the prestigious Guildhall in the City of London Corporation.

Attended by 500 film makers, media personalities and industry professionals, the Limelight Film Awards identifies emerging film talent through the red carpet award ceremony. "We have received nearly two thousand films for this round which is a clear demonstration that the film making community are alive and kicking," Says Founder and CEO Munsur Ali.

The red carpet event will start of with a drinks reception at 6.30pm, followed by the awards ceremony starting at 7.30pm where highlights of the nominated films will be screened before winners are announced. The event is expected to end around 10pm where the celebrations will continue to the after party!

Supported by the City of London Corporation, the Guildhall hosts royal banquets to state visits and this year we are extra pleased that film makers will also be making their mark on this 500-year-old historic venue.

Tickets are on sale and can be purchased via the website www.limelightawards.com

Summary:

The 9th Limelight Film Awards, Friday 13th October 2017, from 6.30pm till 10.00pm followed by an after party.

The Limelight Film Awards has identified emerging film talent since 2008 who have progressed to producing feature films, programmes and new production companies. “Limelight is unique in providing that much needed platform for new and emerging film makers. Running since 2008, our programme demonstrates the need of the awards and the abundant of talent out there,” says Founder and CEO Munsur Ali, a film maker himself.
